GAVE PROPITIOUS INTRODUCTION

(Continued from First Page.)

cation was then presented:

Mr. Dayls,—As the Committee on Notification to the vice-presidential nominee, we have the honor in the name of this Democratic National Convention, which was held at St. Louis on July 6th to 5th, to announce to you with that degree of formally which custom and respectful observance prescribe, the fact that you were unanimously named by that body as thely choice for Vice-President of the United States, for term beginning on the 4th of March, 1905, and to request respectfully your acceptance of the nomination. Knowing that we ought to succeed and confiding the good sense of the American people for success, we are, with well merited regard.

Lours for the committee.

(Gigned) JOHN SHARP WILLIAMS, Chairman.

W. R. McCaul, Secretary.

NOTIFICATON ADDRESS. Great Audice Held for an Hour

by Msterful Speech. Chairman in Sharp Williams, of the Notification primittee, spoke as fol-

Sale Ten Million Boxes a Year.

CANDY CATHARTIC THEY WORK WHILE YOU SLEEP

PREVENT ALL SUMMER BOWEL TROUBLES

or the homitration. Knawing that we ought to nucceed and confiding the 800 score of the American people for success, we are, with well merited regard.

(Gilpred JOHN BHARP WILLIAMS, Chairman, W. R. McCaul, Secretary.

Photographed.

Atter a few words from Mr. Davis, the members of the Notification Committee were presented and them to entitle were presented and them to entitle were presented and them to entitle were represented and them to entitle were agroup photograph was taken, life, the words of the committee were agroup photograph was taken, life, the number were present closed, literative were agroup photograph was taken, life, the number were present closed, literative were animed at 81 Louis and twenty five of the number were present closed, literative were animed at 81 Louis and twenty five of the number were present to-day, literative were animed at 81 Louis and twenty five of the number were present to-day, literative were animed at 81 Louis and twenty five of the number were present to-day, literative were animed at 81 Louis and twenty five of the number were present to-day, literative were animed at 81 Louis and twenty five of the number were present to-day, literative were animed at 81 Louis and twenty five of the number were present to-day, literative were animed at 81 Louis and twenty five of the number were present to-day, literative were animed at 81 Louis and twenty five of the number were present to-day, literative were animed at 81 Louis and twenty five of the committee and my lindless and gentlemen, left the hotel he presented to the stand out on the windless and gentlemen, left the hotel he private and the present to-day to the present to day to the present to the p dependey freedom to devolop as one's own master. A not merely as the well-trained and whanaged industrial servant of an other, by the service of the service until somebody consents to accept the profits of newly created industries for the attruistic purpose of giving them away to American. Polish, Hungarien and other labor.

Draggists 084

To Raise or to Buy.

I have known people foolish enought to answer: "That it New Jersey had "created" a great. New Jersey bannan industry, we will say to be considered there under glass and in forcing bedsi, it would have made bannans could be easily raised there under glass and in forcing bedsi, it would have made bannans very much more coally than common people would like, and that perhaps it is better for New Jersey to raise potatoes and peaches and manufacture various things naturally profitable and, with the profits of capital and labor thus plebingly employed, buy bannans." But the men, who say that, of course, are lacking in patroitim—"a cheap bannan makes a cheap man," and we hurl foul scorn at those, who are so, lacking in self-dependence as not to be willing to pay whatever is necessary to be paid out of the pockets of consumers in order to prevent the pauper bannan, raised by pauper labor, grown on pauper soil, neurished by pauper labor, grown of ladustrial inter-dependence constitutes a not isolation and independence of productivity, but reciprosity and inter-dependence constitutes a not isolation leads sto feelings of estrangement and inimity among the people, that industrial inter-dependence constitutes a sort of world effective bond to keep the peace. I need not stop to tell you that such men are "mere theorists." One of them might be granted plenary power for a thousand years, and at the end of that period would not have given any change of occupation to such explication of men lafacture. The base cobbent would not have given any change of occupation to such explication of men lafacture. The world effective bond to keep the peace. I nee

A wise man entertains a sovereign mpt for a great many sorts of errors to sovereignist of all should be visited mew States for those employed on farm, in store, mine or forest, in comparation to make a proper the state of the wages paid in older States, which were within ance of laborers, is to be accounted for by the comparative searcity of workingmen and the comparative searcity of the search of the comparative search search of the compa

Hope for the Republic.

other error of our grandfathers in on with our foreign affairs has can be lately with weighing down emph ge Washington-who, however, was

What a queer, old-time, childish lides was that of our ancestors, that the President of the United States is simply a Chief Decentive and that his duty consists in executing the laws as they were written. In secretary the laws as they were written. In secretary the laws as they were written. In secretary the laws as they were written, in secretary the laws as they were written, the crown to train yourself and to in ferries your Chief-Judge Parker-In the way of usurping the other departments of the same of usurping the other departments of the same systems as that of the President himself in the way to usurping the other departments of the same systems as that of the Senate, you may have some opportunity; the opportunity will not but, as President of the Senate.

Burst of Applause.

Three Cheers-Daniel Called Out.

Three Cheers—Daniel Called Out
Mr. Davis spoke as follows:
Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen of the Committee:
The official notification which you bring of my nomination for the VicePresidency of the United States by the national Democracy gives me a feeling of the sincerest gratitude to my party for the honor conferred. At the same time, it brings to me a deep sense of my responsibility to my party as a candidate, and to my country in case of my election.
A spirit of determination to succeed or my responsibility of the case of my election.

A spirit of determination to succeed in the campaign before us appears to pervade the rank and file of our parly in all sections of the country. Of that rank and file I have for many years been a member; and have at all times devoted my bumble powers to party success, believing that success to be for the country's good. Unexpectedly called, as I am new, to the forefront, I am impelled to an acceptance of the obligation by a sense of gratitude to my fellow-workers, and the hope that I may be able the better to assist in restoring to power that party whose principles and past history guarantee a sale, wise, economical and constitutional administration of the government.

The Rights of Labor.

sacred right of property is the right to possess and own one's self and the labor of one's own hands, capital liself being but stored up labor. For years I worked in the ranks as a wage carner, and I know what it is to earn my living by the sweat of my brow. I have always believed, and my convictions came from the hard school of experience, that, measured by the character of work he does and the cost of living, a man is entitled to full componsation for his services. My experience as a wage earner and my association with labor have alike taught, me the value of Democratic principles, for in them the humblest has the strongest security for individual right and the highest stimulus to that independence of spirit and love of self-help which produce the finest private characters and form the base of the best possible government.

The receipts of the government for the year ending June 30th, 1002, the first fiscal year of the present administration, showed a surplus over expenditures of $91,000,000, but for the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1004, instead of a surplus there was a deficit of $41,000,000. From the list of July, 1004, to August 10th, or for about a month and a third of the present itscal year, the expenditures of the government have expeeded the receipts on $21,715,000. There could be no stronger avidence of the extravagance into which the Republican party has fallem and no more potent argument in behalf of a change to the party whose tenets have always embraced prudence and economy in administering the people's affairs.

Grew Under Democratic Rule.

Our Republican friends are prone to refer to the great commercial growth of the country under their rule, and yet the ceusus reports show that from 1850 to 1869, under Democratic rule and the Walker tariff, the percentage of increase was greater in population, wealth, manufactures and railroad mileage, the factors which affect most largely the preperly of the country than in any decade since.

The cost of government has largely increased under Republican rule. The expenditures per capita for the last years respectively of the administrations given, taken from the reports of the Secretary of the Treasury, were as follows:

In 1869 under Buchanan. $2.01 In 1893 under Harrison. $5.71 in 1897 under Rectand. $5.10 in 1904 under Rocsevelt. $7.10

The Republicans now claim great consistency in their attitude upon the currency question, and the President in his recent speech of acceptance said that they know what they mean what yet in the platforms of their party in 1841, 1883 and 1892, they favored the double standard of value. In the platforms of their party in 1841, 1883 and 1892, they favored the

A Worthy Standard-Bearer.

I congratulate your committee and the constituency it represents in the selection by the delegates to the National Convention of the nomines for the Presidency. He is a man of courage, yet prudent; of high ideals, yet without pretense; of the most wholesome respect for the Constitution and the majesty of the laws under it, and a sacred regard for their limitations; of the keenest sense of justice, which would rebel against compounding a wrong to an individual or to a nation; positive in conviction, yet of few words; strong in mental and moral attributes, and yet witheir modest, and reserved; possessed of a sturdy non-stitution and magnificent manhood, and yet temperate in his actions and dignified in his demeanor. It is not the orator or man of letters, but the man of reserve force, of sound judgment, of conservative method and steadiness of purpose, whom the people have called to the office of the Presidency; notably in the contests between Jefferson and Burr, Jackson and Clay, Lincoln and Doujas, trant and Greeley, Cleveland and Blaine.

Dire predictions were made by our political opponents of what would happen at the St. Louis Convention, but they misjudged the temper of the party and the people, While there had been differences in preceding campaigns, yet at St. Louis they were all harmonized and a common ground was found upon which all could stand and do battle for Democratic principles. A platform was adopted by a unanimous vote, embracing the issues of the day, and presenting to the people a declaration of principles which, in the language of the times, is sane, safe and and sound.

We Should Succeed. Worthy Standard-Bearer.

We Should Succeed.

With a candidate whose personality appeals to the good sense and sound judgment of the American people, a platform whose principles are for the greatest good to the greatest number, and a reunited party carnest for the restoration of good and economical government, we should guesced and the principles of Democracy again triumph.

the principles of Democracy again triumph.

I beg my countrymen, as they value their liberty, to guard with great cars the sacred right of local self government, and to watch with a jealous eye the tendency of the times to centralize power in the hands of the few.

Mr. Chairman, it is an added pleasure to receive this notification at your hands. You have been conservative and courageous as leader of our party in the House of Representatives, a position which few men have filled with the signal ability that you have displayed.

It will be my pleasure and duty, at a time not far hence, to accept more formally in writing, the romination which you have tendered in such graceful and complimentary terms, and to give my views upon some of the important questions now commanding the attention of the country.

* Three Cheers.

portant questions now commanding the attention of the country.

• Three Cheers.

There was a perfect storm of applause when Mr. Davis concluded. In the midst of it an enthusiastic Democrat from South Carolina, in a white flannel suit, jumped up on the rope, steadying himself against the platform, proposed three cheers for Davis, which he led. They were given with such good will that two or three teams attached to vehicles in the road a short distance away were so startled it looked like there would be a run-a session of the West Virginia State Executive Committee this afternoon. There will be another meeting to-morrow.

Senator Tom Davis, brother of the vice-presidential candidate, was at the meeting to-day.

The subcommittee on organization of which Owen McKinney, of Fairmoura, is chairman, reported the State organization is good and is being perfected. The party in the State is getting together. General J. A. Holley, of Charleston, one of the sharpest politicians in the State, but who has not rendered active party service for some years, was designated to open headquarters in Charleston one. He will have charge of the campaign in the southern portion of the State.

Bureaus will soon be opened to prepare and distribute literature and arrange for speakers, The campaign will probably be opened at the State fair at Wheeling, September 5th. The old stagers say the Democrats have never entered upon a better planned campaign in this State.

"The State must be won," was about all "Tom Davis, as everybody calls him, would say when asked for advice as to the methods, He is resolved his brother shall be Vice-President.

The Virginians,

The Virginians.

The Virginians from a distance who at-tended the notification ceremonics, re-turned home to-night for the most part. Several will remain until Saturday or lunday. Colonel Joseph Button will go to Clifton Forge to-morrow to attend a meeting of the Alleghany Democratic Committee. To-morrow night he will attend a meet-ing there of the Tenth District Congresional Committee, of which he is chair-

WALTER EDWARD HARRIS.

COUNTRY TURNED OUT.

Health and Strength of Senator Davis Source of Congratulation.

Davis Source of Congratulation.

(By Associated Press)

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. VA.

Aug. 17.—It took Mr. Davis ten minutes to read his formal acceptance, but he prefaced this with a heart-to-heart talk of like duration to the several thousand friends and neighbors who were gathered under the trees as his audience.

Old fashioned "coaches and four" raised in with steeming horses and inerty passengers from nearby resorts: farmers drove to "The White" with their families from many miles around, and mountaineers made pilgrimage with saddle bags crammed with rations. White Sulphur has a population at this time of the year

Telephone is Your Office.

Why not keep in close touch with every other business man in town by having a telephone in your office.

> Our Rates Are Reasonable,

Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Co.

711 East Grace Street.

Every Woman,

and probably every girl loves handsome jewelry. All of them, or nearly all, are economical, too-consequently they should patronize us. It means safety, satisfaction, economy—and she will be sure she has just what she paid

> J. J. Allen & Co., 🚿 14th & Main St.

Carollas, In's, a white Gannel suit, humped up on the rope, steadying himself against the platform, proposed three cheers for Davie, which he led. They were given with such good will that two or three teams attached to vehicles in the round of the looked like there would be a runnway.

The calls for Daniel then began. The bend was playing at the too note, but the crowd he shall not be stilled. They have been well to be stilled. They have been well to be stilled. They have been done to be stilled to be stilled to be stilled to come before you simply because you did me the honor to invite, me into this noble presence. There has a fine and a stilled me the honor to invite, me into this noble presence. There have a found of a stilled me the honor to invite, me into this noble presence. There has a front of the port of the wear and gold standard. I, after fighting twenty years for a standard of silver and gold, shall advise any countrymen to follow our example by standard the problem of the wear of the wea

THE ORGANIZATION BUREAU

THE ORGANIZATION BUREAU
IN CHARGE OF RODIE

(By Ascockated Press).

ESOPUS. N. Y. August 17.—A gcod deal of interest was exhibited here to-day in the selection of William S. Rodie to have charge of the newly created bureau of organization in connection with the Democratic State Committee. Mr. Rosithas not been an active political leader, hut he is noted for his talent for organization and detail. Edwin M. Bhappath, of Brooklyn, who ran for Mayor of ignater New York against Seth Low in 1984, and whose name has been mentioned in connection with the Democratic nomination for Governor, strived from Lake George to-day and took lunchen at Rosemount. Several other important visitors were expected to-day.

Spent Life in the Service.

Mr. H. M. Bronson, of Cincinnati, assistant general passenger agent of the Big Four Rallroad, is in the city visiting his son, Mr. W. S. Hronson, assistant general passenger agent of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway. The former is one of the oldest railway officials in the United States in point of continuous service, having been in railway work for fity-three years, many of which have been as general passenger agent or assistant.

Burst of Applause.

Burst of Applause.

There was an outburst of applause at the conclusion of speech that lasted a minute. Mr. Davis was the first to rise and cross to Mr. Williams and congratulate him by taking both hands in his own. The candidate smilling at nearly every sentence, had paid the closest attention to the speech and it was plain that no man enjoyed it more. He was specially pleased, apparently, with the references to the speech made by Mr. Root in notifying Senator Falrbanks of the nomination.

Mr. Williams did not once use the name of the President, but referred to him throughout "as our distinguished citizen in the White House." It was most noticeable that every allusion by Mr. Williams to the race problem was applaused to the echo, though there was no portion of the speech which excited so much laughter as that portion which declared that the President says we should pray for war.

It was several minutes before Mr. Davis could proceed, so loud was the applause with which he was greeted and so prolonged. The enthusiasm was the manifestation of the esteem in which he is held by his fellow-citizeng of West Virginia, Mr. Davis was dressed in a black Prince Albert suit, high collar and black Prince Albert suit, high collar and black prince in the promptu remarks of rather a personal nature, greeting his friends from his own State.

He held his manuscript in his hand but his own State.

He held his manuscript in his hand but did not read closely, interspersing the set phrases with homely allusions.

SENATOR DAVIS REPLIES. Discusses the Issues and Given

Significant of Closer Brotherhood.

I find it, therefore, a great pleasure, standing here upon the border land of the two Virginias, to receive and accept the commission you hear, and to send greetings through you to the Democracy of the entire country. Is it not significant of a closer and truer brotherhood among us that for the first time since the Civil War a nominee on the national ticket has been taken from that section of our common country that lies south of Mason and Dixon's linea happy recognition of the childrenton of all sectional differences which led to and followed that unhappy struggle?

As introductory to the few remarks I shell make, I desire to say that I heartly endorse the platform ubon which I have been nominated, and with the convention and its nominee for President, regard the present monetary standard of value as irrevocably established.

In the campaign preceding the last election much stress was laid by Re-

In the language of our platform, "the rights of labor are certainly no less vested no less sacred and no less insulated in the rights of capital." The truth of this utterance. The most sacred right of property is the right to possess and own one's self and the topossess and own one's self and the Grew Under Democratic Rule.